Students who are exempt from an exam are still required to attend the last scheduled class. If a student is absent from a scheduled exam, the student will need to make arrangements for make-up exams with the individual teacher.

During a student's scheduled study hall or if a student is exempt from the scheduled exam, they are not required to be in school as long as the attached written permission is returned. Students are to remain in class for the duration of the scheduled exam. Students are expected to be in the cafeteria during lunch and the school will not provide transportation beyond the regular scheduled morning and afternoon buses.

If you have any questions regarding the above procedure, please feel free to contact the office.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ronna Cadarette
Principal

Please return this bottom portion to Amy Cartmell (Main Office) by January 12th, 2011. No exceptions.
