Lisa Swancott listed inventory on hand ($630 worth). Treasurers report balance is $1,169.39. Mike Regan made a motion to accept the treasurers report, Gretchen Wilder seconded. All approved and the treasurers report was accepted.

Spirit Clothing

Upcoming sport events were discussed and the need for volunteers to rent/sell stadium seats at events. Home meets are the 14th, 16th and 30th of April. There was a discussion of the possibility of purchasing accordion style folding chairs for the future. Don Buckwell will find out the cost from Piche's.

Principals Report:

June 11th at 5:30 will be graduation. April 12th, mentoring extended, juniors science NECAPS coming up. They are looking into trips and tickets for incentives. There will be a bullying assembly on April 22 at 10:20 titled "hooked on facebook". Mock block was very successful; teachers were challenged due to time (before vacation). Exams were scheduled and that was the challenge. Another mock block will be scheduled before the end of the year. Lisa Ransom and Anna Helbling are putting next years schedule together for review. Gretchen mentioned safety for seniors at prom and there was a brief discussion about giving that information to students.

Other:

More fundraising ideas were mentioned and Don Buckwell will check the criteria for a Fishercats fundraiser. BJ's membership's fundraiser has been extended.

Student council member Daley Buckwell reported that there is a tentative "lock-in" scheduled for the first Friday in June.

The music department's Great East Festival is scheduled for May 27. Parent volunteers needed to participate and assist with this field trip.

Meeting adjourned at 7:09 pm.
